

Scholars Academy Honor Code

The Scholars Academy Honor Code has been agreed upon by the faculty, administrators, and student body representatives. The purpose of this honor code is to encourage students to achieve at the highest level of their abilities while demonstrating academic honesty and personal integrity; it represents an effort to establish a common understanding among staff, students, and parents as to what constitutes cheating. Students must understand that they are never to present any words or ideas not their own without proper citation.

Some Examples of Cheating

- The use of Spark notes or any other student summary aids without the specific permission of the instructor
- Plagiarism: the act of using another person's words or ideas without giving credit to that person (Miriam-Webster.com online Dictionary)
- Submitting as your own work the product of digital paraphrasing tools or AI, such as ChatGBT bot
- The giving of an individual assignment to another student to assist the student without the permission of the teacher or professor

Homework

- Copying or paraphrasing all or a part of another's work, including work produced by a digital paraphrasing tool or AI
- Allowing another to copy or paraphrase your work, including notes related to assigned reading
- Receiving help on assignments that have been identified as work to be done solely by you

Tests

- Obtaining help or giving help prior to or during a test or quiz
- Passing test questions or answers to students in your class or another class, including verbal discussion or electronic means
- Receiving test questions or answers from students in your class or another class
- Copying someone else's answers
- Allowing someone to copy your answers
- Possessing or using "crib" or cheat sheets
- Obtaining a copy of the test or quiz before it is administered
- Attempting to gain an unfair advantage before or during a test, such as looking at another student's work; turning around, leaving books or notes open; signaling
- Deliberately and repeatedly choosing to miss classes through unexcused absences, lateness to school, or early dismissal to avoid taking a test or handing in an assignment
- Using additional websites, online dictionaries, or other assistance while taking an online test or quiz
